09:42:14 From Jack Rozel, MD, MSL (he/him) : @Shannon -- robust data on media-linked contagion in suicide and on violence. For suicide, see <https://reportingonsuicide.org/> and <https://ijnet.org/en/story/recommendations-reporting-responsibly-suicide> -- lots of good links embedded at the second website. Happy to share some of the research articles as well. One of the oldest articles I have in my archives is an 1845 psychiatry journal article raising the concern of suicides sparked by news coverage of other suicides (<http://ajp.psychiatryonline.org/doi/pdfplus/10.1176/ajp.1.3.225>)
