

crisistrivia
hotseat

In her TEDx talk, Lisa Morgan describes typical actions of kindness and supportive gestures that might be unnerving to the person on the autism spectrum and a violation of personal space, even scary.

She described what happened when her husband died and police were present. Which was helpful?

A: Person asking what was needed before taking any action

B: Victim advocate encouraging interaction with therapy dog

C: Police officer consoling hand on the shoulder

D: Neighbor inviting a shared meal

crisistrivia
hotseat

Lisa says, “The way we think, speak, and understand the world is unconventional...”
Asking autistic people what it’s like is the key to understanding.

She described what happened when her husband died and police were present. Which was helpful?

A: Person asking what was needed before taking any action

B: Victim advocate encouraging interaction with therapy dog

C: Police officer consoling hand on the shoulder

D: Neighbor inviting a shared meal

988
SUICID
& CRISIS
LIFELINE

Crisis JAM SESSION

OCTOBER 26th

MADHURI JHA

Director
Kennedy-
Satcher
Center for Mental Health Equity

TALK.CRISISNOW.COM

The Challenge
Care that feels like care