

“

My hope is that the first responders are able to do what they do well and that we can step in on some of those other calls that really don't require EMS or the police department. We can increase the amount of time that people are in the community and not going into the hospital or going to jail. I think that'll be a huge success.

CHRISTINE ALVAREZ
ALASKA BEHAVIORAL HEALTH
A DAY IN THE LIFE...MOBILE CRISIS TEAMS

Crisis JAM SESSION

NOVEMBER 30th

TANSY MCNUITY

Founder &
CEO
1 Million
Madly
Motivated
Moms

TALK.CRISISNOW.COM

The Challenge
Care that feels like care