

In April 2021, The Center for Law and Social Policy (CLASP) published a report calling for “An Investment to Decriminalize Mental Health,” which focused on eliminating negative narratives, specifically for young Black people with mental health conditions.

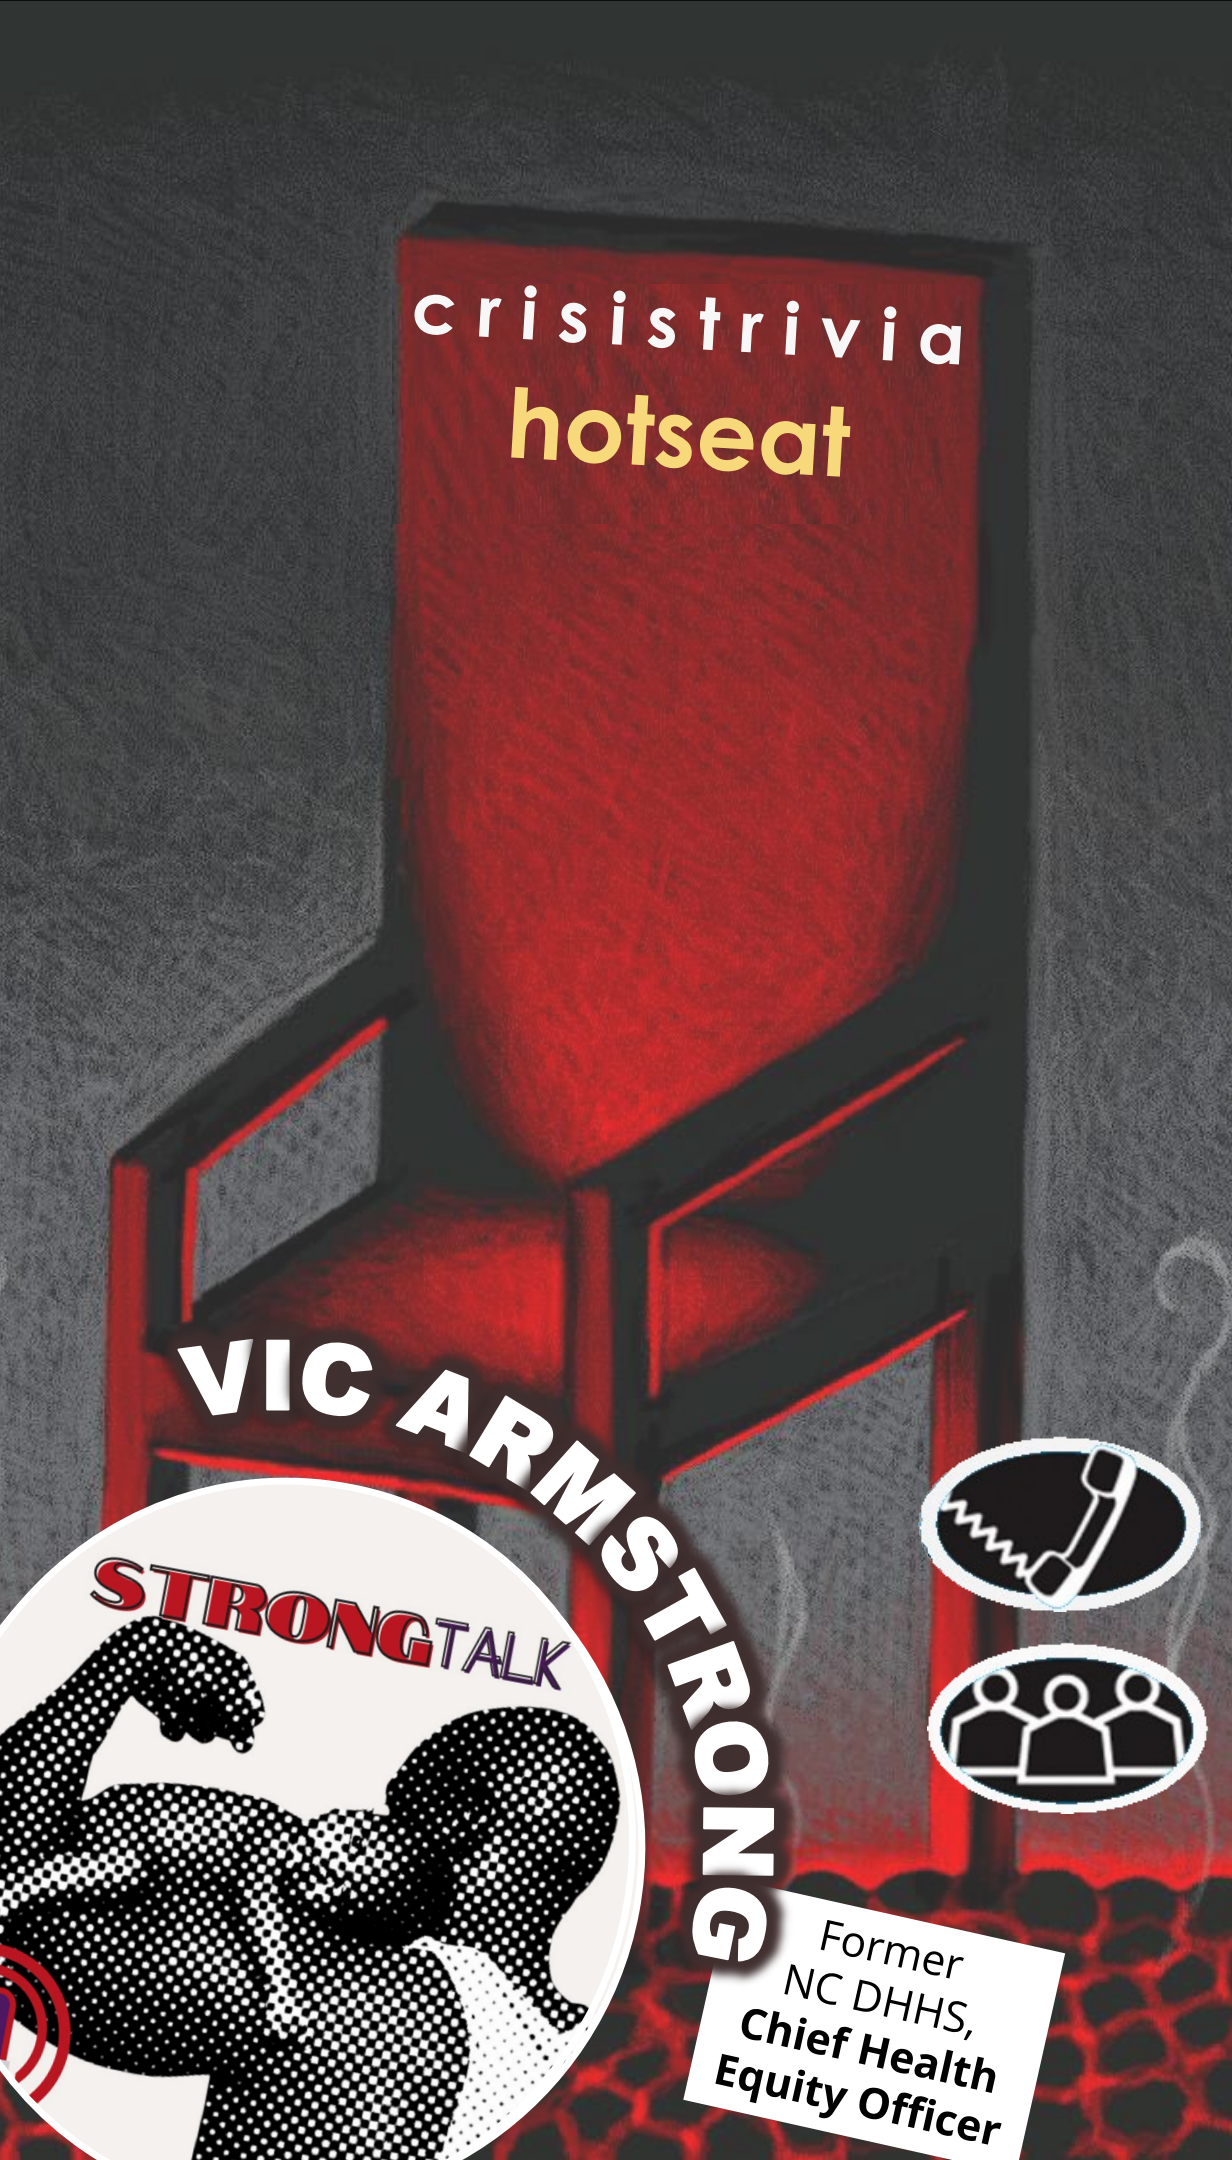

Which core emergency service was the primary subject of the report to better respond to mental health and social crisis?

A: 988 Crisis Contact Hub

B: Mobile Response

C: Crisis Receiving Facility

D: Crisis Stabilization

crisistrivia
hotseat

“Youth Mobile Response Services” called for states and communities to deploy the resources and structure to effectively and equitably engage communities of color, as an alternative to law enforcement.

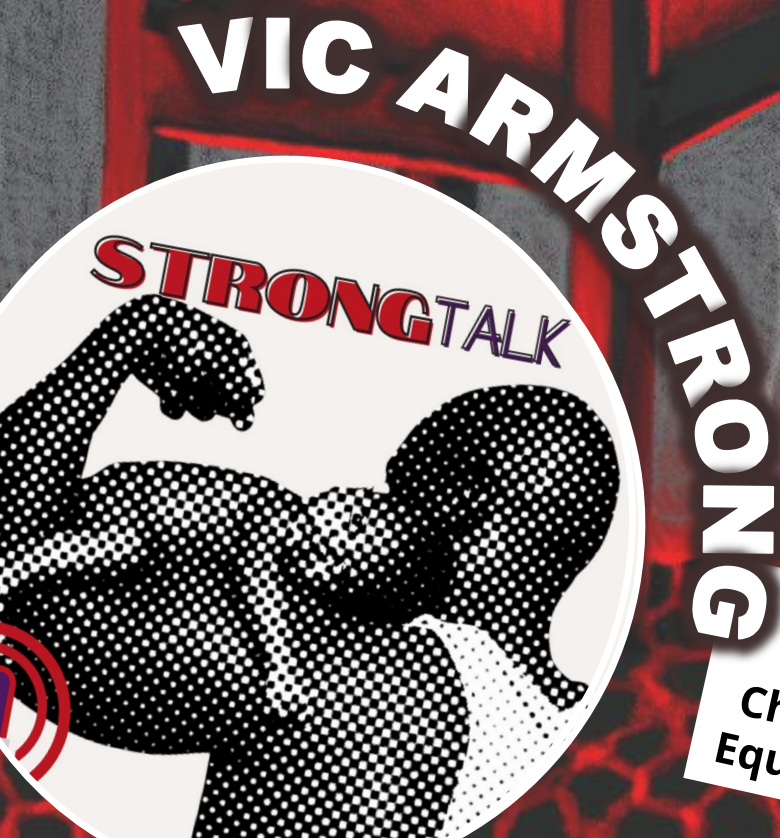

Which core emergency service was the primary subject of the report to better respond to mental health and social crisis?

A: 988 Crisis Contact Hub

B: Mobile Response

C: Crisis Receiving Facility

D: Crisis Stabilization

Former
NC DHHS,
Chief Health
Equity Officer

