

988 Crisis Jam – Ep 122 – April 12, 2023 – Chat Transcript

09:00:20 From Tina Jones to Everyone:

Hi everyone! I'm Tina Jones (she/her), Controller at For All Seasons Outpatient Mental Health and Rape Crisis Center. I'm a trans woman, suicide survivor, and foster parent of a non-binary teen who lost their battle with suicide last May.

09:00:47 From Edita Fuentes to Everyone:

Greetings from Edita Fuentes, Admin Asst/Community Development with the Nueces County Mental Health Programs in Corpus Christi, TX. Also serve as the Secretary/Office Manager of the local NAMI Greater Corpus Christi since 2019. LOVE these 988 weekly calls; enjoy learning something new with innovative ideas!

09:04:27 From Dean Carson (OHA) (he/him) to Everyone:

Great new content! Does SAMHSA have an eta for Spanish materials or if those will not be created until Spanish text/chat is live this summer? Do we have a status on that? Our community partners are asking for Spanish content. Thanks!

09:04:33 From kate dahlstrom to Everyone:

In one of my other lives I was a high school teacher. I'm curious how much of the anti LGBTQ+ slander, stigma, comments are coming from staff (Teachers administrators, etc.)

09:09:45 From Dean Carson (OHA) (he/him) to Everyone:

If a non-English LGBTQ+ youth wants affirming 988 support, should they call 988 and ask for an interpreter and then, together, they could call 988 and press 3, or start with press 3 and ask for interpreter?

Can you speak about the impact on this population when anti-gender affirming legislation is introduced or passed?

09:27:15 From Angela Weeks (She/Her) to Everyone:

Thank you everyone. Very glad this topic was brought to the Jam today. I hope this is the start of more conversations around this population. Tina's story highlights the importance of family support and, yet, families are often not the center of our focus when we are working with LGBTQ+ youth. I hope that changes.
