

Medicaid Front & Center

TOM BETLACH HEATHER SAUNDERS

Partner -
Speire
Healthcare
Strategies

Post-Doctoral Fellow, KFF

Crisis Response Services: Medicaid Survey Findings

Heather Saunders, Madeline Guth, Nirmita Panchal

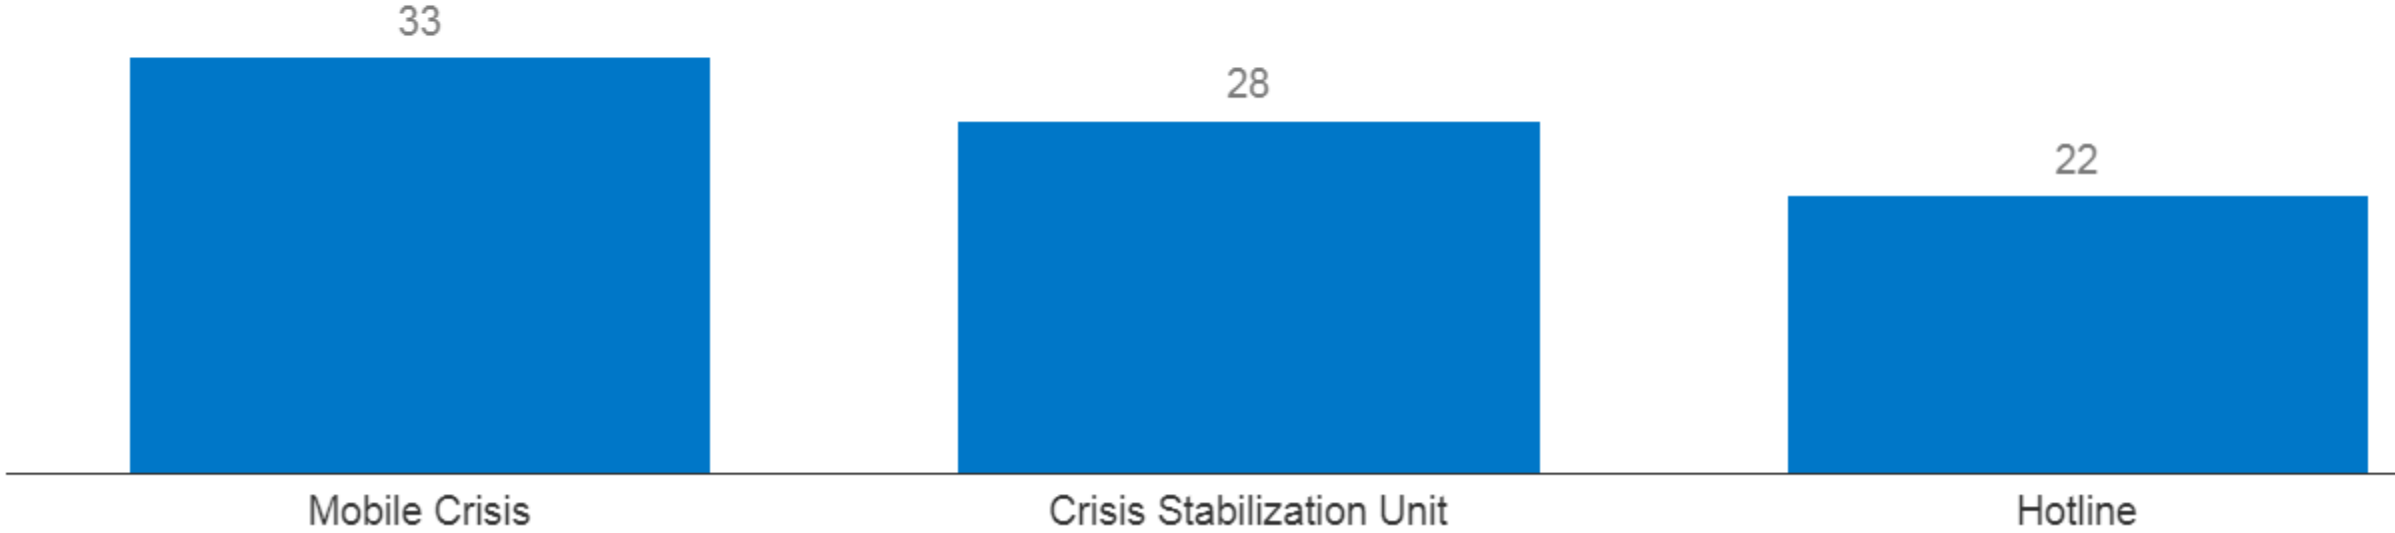

Published: May 25, 2023

KFF

The independent source for health policy research, polling, and news.

State Medicaid Coverage of Crisis Services, as of 7/1/22

Reflects Medicaid Coverage for Adult enrollees in FFS programs
N=45 responding states

NOTE: Crisis hotline services are available to anyone free of charge across all states, but some Medicaid programs help to finance crisis hotlines by reimbursing crisis hotline services, which might include 988 or other hotlines.

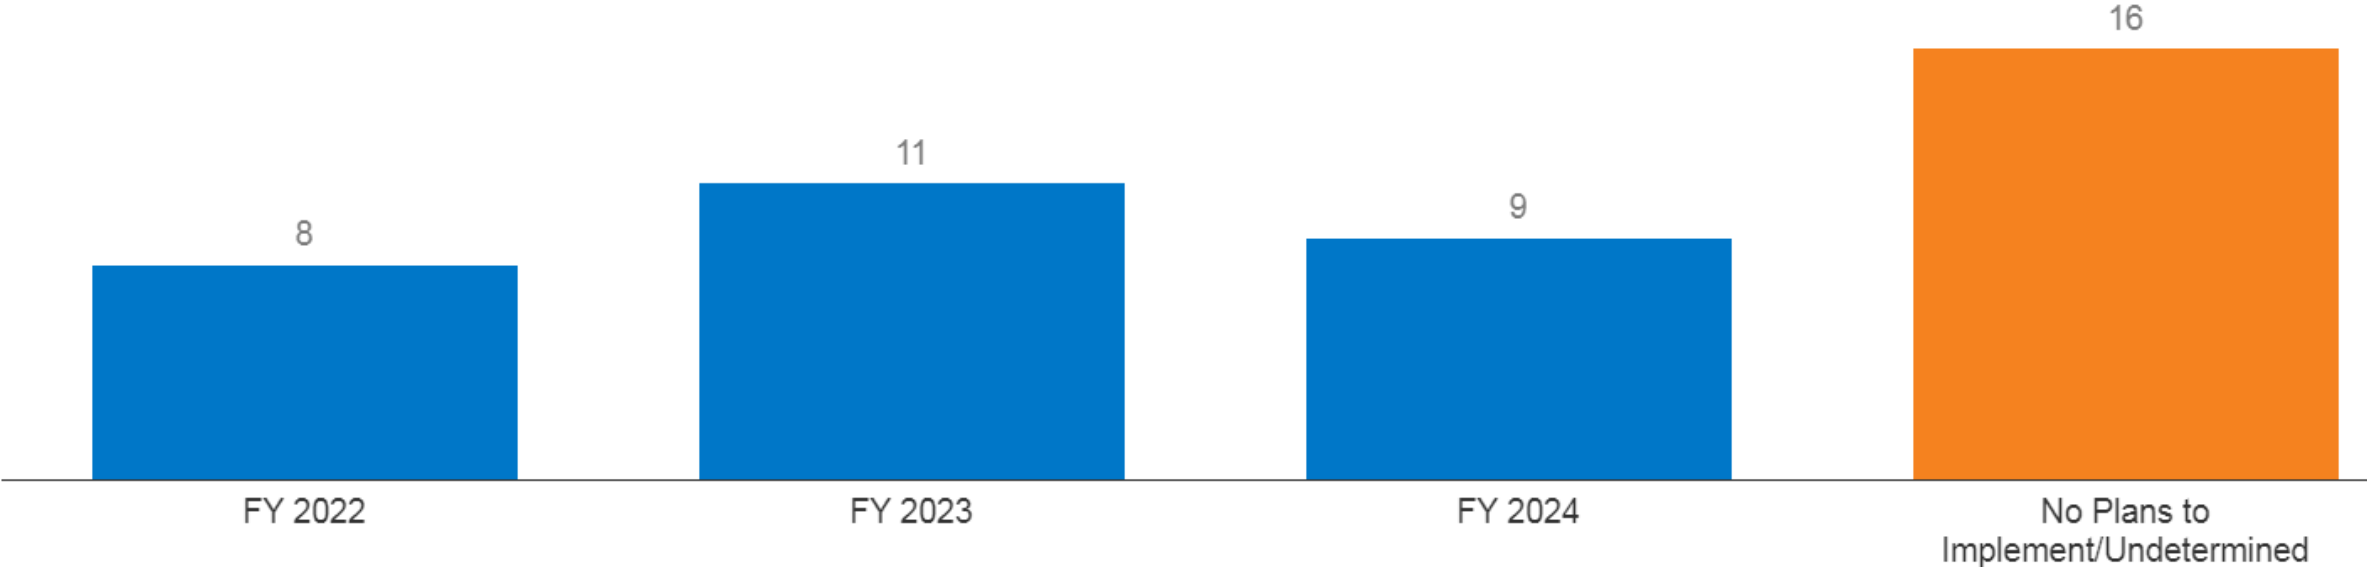

SOURCE: Behavioral health supplement to the annual KFF survey of state Medicaid officials conducted by Health Management Associates, October 2022

State Plans to Implement ARPA Mobile Crisis Intervention Services

n=44 responding states

of states planning to implement mobile crisis services

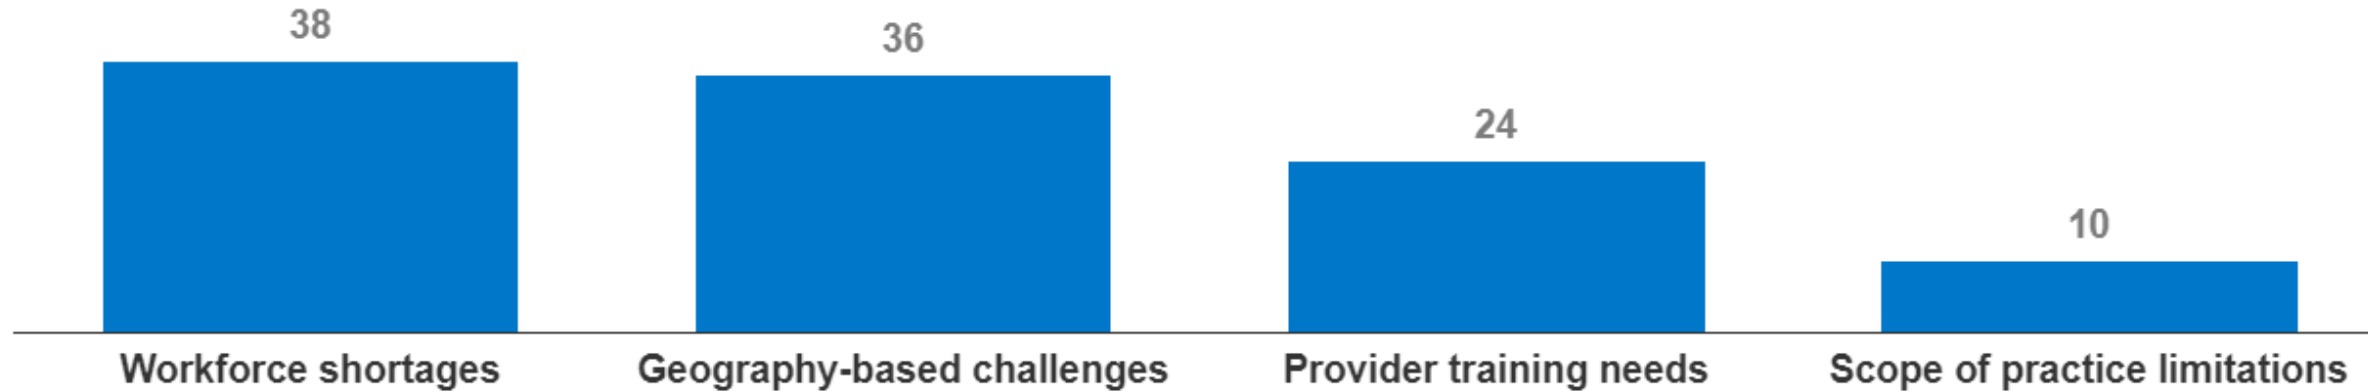

SOURCE: Behavioral health supplement to the annual KFF survey of state Medicaid officials conducted by Health Management Associates, October 2022

Implementation Challenges for Medicaid-Funded Behavioral Health Crisis Services

n=44 responding states

The bars show the number of states that experienced or expect to experience challenges

SOURCE: Behavioral health supplement to the annual KFF survey of state Medicaid officials conducted by Health Management Associates, October 2022

Select KFF Medicaid Behavioral Health Resources

- Research briefs published from survey findings from state Medicaid programs
 - Crisis Services
 - Medicaid Coverage of Behavioral Health Services
 - Telehealth Delivery of Behavioral Health Services
 - Medicaid Strategies to Address Workforce Shortages
 - Medicaid and School Based Services
 - Delivery, Administration, and Integration of Behavioral Health Care in Medicaid
- Behavioral Health Services Coverage, Cost Sharing, and Limits for 55 Behavioral Health Services, by State
- Contact: heathers@kff.org