

After 20 years inpatient, she moved into her own apartment, worked as an artist and exhibited her boldly colorful pastel and acrylic portraits in Georgia galleries. She became a public advocate and in 2011 presented one of her paintings to President Obama in the Oval Office.

What was the name of a lead plaintiff in the landmark 1999 US Supreme Court ruling?

A: Jean Olmstead

B: Sue Jamieson

C: Lois Curtis

D: Ruth Burgens

crisistrivia
hotseat

DR. KEN THOMPSON

Director & Co-founder,
Pennsylvania Psychiatric
Leadership Council

crisistrivia
hotseat

Bazelon called Olmstead “the first time the court has announced that needless institutionalization is a form of discrimination,” and Adapt pronounced the ruling “the Brown v. Board of Education for disability rights.”

What was the name of a lead plaintiff in the landmark 1999 US Supreme Court ruling?

A: ~~Jean~~ Olmstead

B: Sue Jamieson

C: Lois Curtis

D: Ruth ~~Burgens~~

DHR Defendant
Tommy Olmstead

Legal Aid Lawyer for Lois & Elaine Wilson

Justice Ginsburg
Court Opinion/ADA

DR. KEN THOMPSON

Director & Co-founder,
Pennsylvania Psychiatric
Leadership Council

