

crisistrivia
hotseat

A 911 emergency system was a revolution in telecommunications. The concept of using a simple code to call for help on the phone took hold and spread across the globe.

The first-ever call to a national three-digit emergency system occurred in what year and in what country?

A: USA, 1968

B: Australia, 1958

C: Denmark, 1947

D: UK, 1937

Executive Director,
CIT International

BART OATES

crisistrivia
hotseat

On July 8, Mrs. Beard of Hampstead, England called 999 to report her husband was chasing a burglar around the neighborhood. According to press accounts, her quick call led to police apprehending the suspect.

The first-ever call to a national three-digit emergency system occurred in what year and in what country?

A: USA, 1968

B: Australia, 1958

C: Denmark, 1947

D: UK, 1937

Executive Director, CIT International

