988 Crisis Jam – Ep 152 – November 15, 2023 – Chat Transcript

- 10:13:34 From Brenda McFarlane : Bobby Dorton is not only the Reentry Program Manager, but a change maker and advocate for Alaskans in crisis, in recovery from SUD, and reentering society from incarceration. He is always reminding us "Nothing about us...without us!!" Why I wanted him here...
- 10:14:07 From Georgea Madeira : Reacted to "Bobby Dorton is not ..." with ❤️
- 10:14:09 From Betsy Hammar : Reacted to "Bobby Dorton is not ..." with 👍
- 10:17:04 From Justin Shelby : The Corroboree as a whole was really Joe Williams' way of reconnection, whether it was with his people, the land, his ancestry, all of it was a vital part to his wellbeing after some serious struggles he was going through. That sense of brotherhood was so intense, everyone there was called brother, sister, or cousin, uncle, father and grandfather. By the end, his young son Arri even pulled me in for a handshake and called me brother. So, very special for sure!

- 10:40:28 From Aurora Martinez : Replying to "Which is more approp..." It depends on who you talk with. I often prefer to use Indigenous as an Indigenous individual but often Native American or American Indian are appropriate as well.

The authors of this manual made something very unique and useful.
