

Guardian of the Golden Gate 🌉

Meet Kevin Briggs. For 20+ years, he patrolled the Golden Gate Bridge as a CHP sergeant. He encountered hundreds in crisis... many already across the rail onto the apron.

ACCORDING TO HIS BOOK, WHAT WAS THE MOST IMPORTANT TOOL HE USED TO HELP SOMEONE STEP BACK FROM THE EDGE?

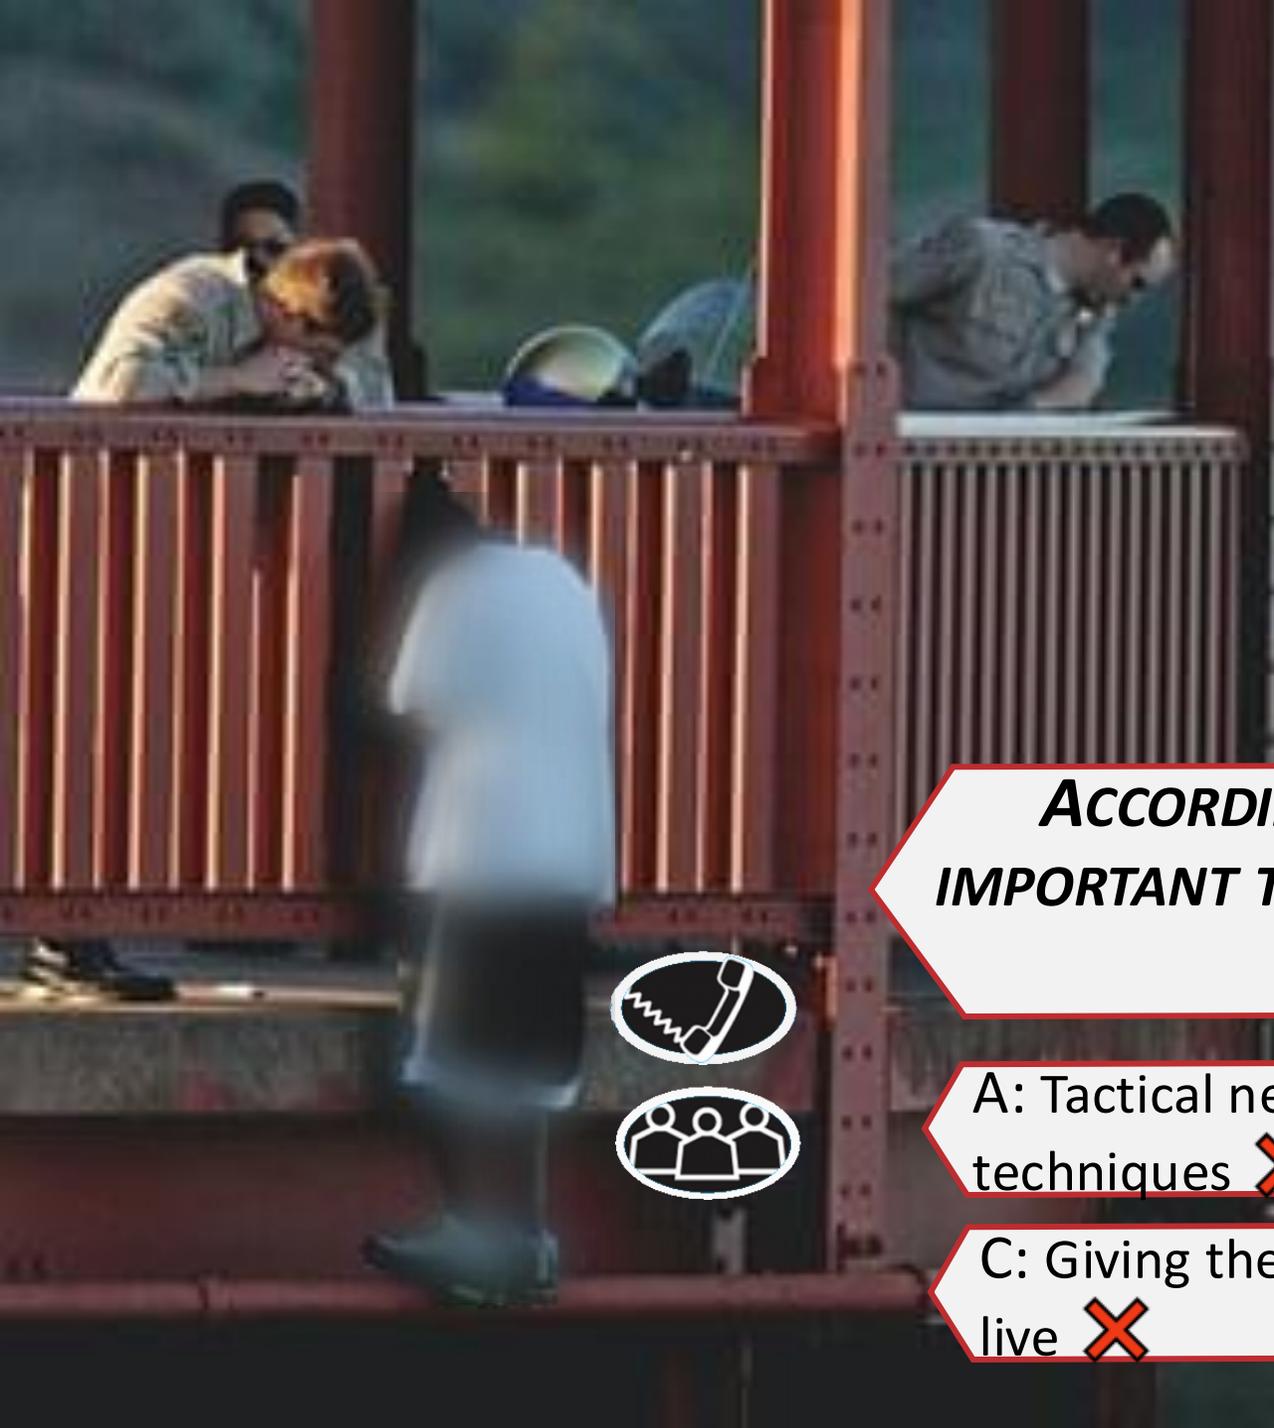

A: Tactical negotiation techniques

B: Sharing stories of other survivors

C: Giving them a reason to live

D: Listening without judgment

“It wasn’t about having the perfect thing to say,” Briggs writes. “It was about being fully present—and really listening.”

ACCORDING TO HIS BOOK, WHAT WAS THE MOST IMPORTANT TOOL HE USED TO HELP SOMEONE STEP BACK FROM THE EDGE?

A: Tactical negotiation techniques **✗

B: Sharing stories of other survivors **✗

C: Giving them a reason to live **✗

D: Listening without judgment **✓