09:05:45 From Shauna Murphy : Oregon Takes Bold Step on Mental Health Frontlines! The Oregon Senate has just passed a groundbreaking bill aimed at tackling the critical behavioral health workforce shortage. Now awaiting the Governor’s signature, this legislation could reshape the future of mental healthcare access across the state. This move comes as communities cry out for more qualified professionals, better care, and faster support. With a rising demand for mental health services, this bill could be the lifeline Oregon’s healthcare system needs. Let’s keep the conversation going. Do you think other states should follow Oregon’s lead? Drop your thoughts below ⬇️
